

Lish Croes presented her quilt, entitled 2001 Festival Quilt, which was quilted by Monta Horner. This is the 2001 Hop Around Festival Quilt.

Charlotte Brown presented her quilt, entitled 3-D Pinwheel. The pinwheel is her favorite design. This is a little large, but she still really likes it. The buttons hide her boo-boos! She may have it hand-quilted.

Janice Royse presented her quilt, which she quilted. It started with a Block of the Month. The learning process has been fun. It has points that meet and some that don't. The time that she and Connie have spent will last forever. Wherever the quilt ends up doesn't matter. It was made with love. Time and imperfection make it hers.

Connie Hernandi presented her quilt, entitled Bed of Roses, which she quilted. It was a Block of the Month from Its' A Stitch and is her first large quilt.

Mary Burrell presented her quilt, entitled Circle of Life, which was quilted by Christie Gilmore. It has bright, multi-color Lone Star and New York Beauty blocks. This was supposed to be her rodeo quilt. She started it around September and finished it after Christmas. It won Best of Division Machine Quilted Pieced. Now she has to make one for Christie. It was made from a Be Colourful Circle of Life pattern by Jacqueline de Jonge.
