

Janetta Rodriguez shows “Keep On Trucking,” which was sewn and quilted for her by Lish Croes. Lish bought it for herself a few years ago, but her youngest is leaving the teenage years, so she made it for Janetta. The wall hanging says “Raising Teenagers Is Like Being Pecked to Death By Chickens.”

Lois Jones shows “Garden Maze”, which was quilted by Stephanie Sumpter. This was her first Block of the Month from It’s A Stitch, and may have been IAS’s first ever BOM. The setting is from K.C. Star pattern, revised and resized. Each block is quilted differently.

Martha McHaney shows “Pastel Waves”, which she quilted. This is a Crazy Nine Patch with quilted wave stitch. All the fabrics – front and back – were hand dyed by Martha.
