

July 2010 Show and Tell

Susan Dowdall made this quilt she calls Rick's Wine & Corks for her late husband. He wanted a throw to keep warm while watching TV. Susan designed, stitched and quilted this quilt with love.

Judi Carter made this wonderful quilt carrier bag from a Jelly Roll book for her good friend Susan Dowdall.

Elizabeth Wojtasiewicz made this quilt she calls Sinking Sailboat. Elizabeth fell in love with Ami Simm's quilt last month and was able to find the pattern on Ami's website. She finished it just before the guild meeting.

Ann Eubanks made this quilt she calls Autumn for a friend who is ill. Ann says this was a fun and fast quilt to make.

Norma Larson made this quilt she calls Baseball Quilt for Bell Twins. Norma's grandson and wife are expecting twin boys. Both Mom and Dad are avid baseball fans and they saw a baseball quilt on-line and sent Norma a picture and the fabric to make crib quilts.
