

Fonda Smallwood made this quilt she calls Goodbye KHS Golf for Coach Bellnaf. He was an awesome golf coach for Fonda's son Jeremy for four years. Quilted by Brenda Booth.

Fonda Small wood made this quilt she calls Pretty Flowers for Carol Reiner who was the "Golf Mom". Quilted by Brenda Booth.

Janet Turini made this quilt at the April workshop.

Ann Eubanks made this beautiful quilt with lots of panels, including the Lord's Prayer. Quilted by Margaret Erickson.

Marjory Saklou made this French Braid quilt for her son.
Quilted by Brenda Booth.

Sandra Ingram made her first T-shirt quilt for her son with T-shirts he collected from church youth camps and Mission trips. She was able to make the entire quilt from her stash and the T-shirts! Sandra did a great job on the quilting too!

Norma Larson made this quilt she calls Minkie Baby Quilt. Norma put handles on the quilt so that it can easily be carried by the mother when her arms are full. Later, the child can use these handles to drag the quilt around. Norma did the quilting herself!

