

October 2009 Show and Tell

Sandra Grogan made BLUE LAGOON for her niece, Allison Shaver. Allison and her mother picked the pattern and some of the fabrics from Sandra's stash. Sandra's sister-in-law's favorite color is blue, but Allison favors pinks and Kelly green. The pattern and fabrics for this quilt are from the Kaffe Fassett collection. Sandra will present the quilt to her niece this weekend.

What a lucky girl she is!

Rose Fairlie shared with us this untitled quilt which she designed herself. This is the quilt that made Rose so famous as it was recently published in the July, 2009 issue of Quick Quilts!
I guess we can all say we that “We knew her when . . .”

Rose shared another of her untitled quilts with us which she made from a piece of decorator fabric. She purchased this fabric thinking she would make a valance for her guest bedroom but made this wonderful wall hanging instead.

The Saturday Strippers Bee has been very busy as evidenced by this quilt entitled FIELD OF FLOWERS made by Janetta Rodriguez and this tote made by Alice Anjo. The wonderful thing about this pattern is that you quilt as you go. Janetta plans on adding more flowers which of course will mean more quilting. Looks like the possibilities are endless! This pattern can be found in the August 2009 issue of Better Homes and Gardens American Patchwork and Quilting magazine.

Elizabeth McKnight shared a quilt entitled F & J T-SHIRTS made from Fulbright & Jaworski T-shirts. This wonderful lap quilt was made for a March of Dimes fundraiser.

Elizabeth McKnight also made TULIP which is a miniature size quilt from a free pattern she found on the internet. Elizabeth learned some new techniques while making this quilt. This adorable quilt will be donated to the guild for our upcoming silent auction in March, 2010.
